THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

The Gathering of the Community

The people stand as the wedding party enters the church.

If a member or friend of the bride's family escorts her into the church, that person brings her to where the bridegroom is standing and then takes a seat in the congregation.

The persons to be married stand together before the minister, the bridegroom standing at the right hand of the bride, in the presence of two appointed witnesses and the congregation.

1 GREETING

The minister says:

Grace to you and peace
from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1: 7

Amen.

Friends, we have come together in the presence of God to witness the marriage of NNN and NNN, to surround them with our prayers, and to share in their joy.

or

Friends, we are here to witness and celebrate the marriage of NNN and NNN. We gather in the presence of God and surround them with prayer as we share in their joy.

Today as N and N commit their lives in love to each other, let us commit ourselves to love and support them, and so celebrate God's love for us all.

The minister may welcome the people.

2 SCRIPTURE SENTENCES

The minister calls the people to worship with one or more Scripture sentence(s), such as:

Come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us come before his presence
with thanksgiving.

Psalm 95: 1 - 2

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.

Psalm 118:1

This is the day which the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 118:24

God is love,
and those who live in love live in God,
and God lives in them.

1 John 4:16

3 HYMN

A hymn or song may be sung.

4 PRAYER

Let us pray:

Gracious God,
your generous love surrounds us,
and everything we enjoy comes from you.
In your great love
you have given us the gift of marriage.
Bless N and N as they pledge their lives to each other;
that their love may continue to grow and be the true reflection of your love for us all;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The following prayer of confession may be said.

God of mercy,
you are the giver of life and the bringer of joy.
In body, mind and soul,
you heal us and make us new.
We confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

Where appropriate, the following or similar words may be included:

For those times
when we have failed in our relationships
and broken our commitments,
we ask your forgiveness.

May the God of love
heal and strengthen us,
deepen our love for one other,
and renew our lives,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

If a Prayer of Confession is used, a Declaration of Forgiveness such as the following is appropriate.

God is love.
Through Christ your sins are forgiven.
Take hold of this forgiveness
and live your life in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

5 DECLARATION OF PURPOSE

The minister says:

Marriage is a gift of God
and a means of grace.
In the life-long union of marriage
we can know the joy of God,
in whose image we are made, male and female.

Marriage is founded in God's loving nature,
and in the covenant of love made with us in Christ.

Husband and wife,
in giving themselves to each other in love, reflect the love of Christ for his Church.

In Christian marriage, husband and wife are called
to live together faithfully,
and to love each other with respect,
tenderness and delight.
The companionship and comfort of marriage enables the full expression of physical love between husband and wife.

They share the life of a home
and may be entrusted with the gift and care of children.
They help to shape a society
in which human dignity and happiness
may flourish and abound.

Marriage is a way of life which all people should honour;
it is not to be entered into lightly or selfishly,
but responsibly and in the love of God.

N and N are now to begin this way of life which God has created and Christ has blessed. Therefore, on this their wedding day, we pray that they may fulfil God's purpose for the whole of their lives.

The bride, bridegroom and their attendants may sit.

a symbol of the vows which they have made this day;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

14 PROCLAMATION OF THE MARRIAGE

The couple join hands.

The minister asks the people to stand, and addresses them:

Before God and in the presence of us all,
N and N have made their solemn vows.
They have confirmed their marriage
by the joining of hands
and by the giving and receiving of rings (a ring).

In the name of the Father, the Son and of the Holy Spirit,
I therefore proclaim,
that they are now husband and wife.

Those whom God has joined together no one must separate.

And now may the blessing of God the Father who gives joy
to bridegroom and bride, be upon you;

love, be upon you and remain with you this day and forever more.
Amen.

or D.

Eternal God,
without your grace no promise is sure.
Strengthen N and N
with patience, kindness, gentleness,
and all other gifts of the Holy Spirit,
so that they may fulfil the vows they have made.
Let their love for each other
be a seal upon their hearts,
a mantle about their shoulders,
and a crown upon their heads.

Bless them in their work and in their companionship,
in their joys and in their sorrows.
And finally in your mercy
bring them with all your saints to their heavenly home.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Amen.

The couple may seal their covenant with a kiss.

Where the guests are familiar with the Church's present custom, the Peace may be given here and greetings exchanged.

16 WEDDING CANDLE

The couple may light a wedding candle together, as they prepare to join with the congregation in prayer for their life together. They light their candle from the Easter Candle.

The minister may choose to introduce the lighting of the candle with words such as the following, addressed to the couple.

We light this candle as your marriage is blessed, from the great candle which the Church lights at Easter as a symbol of the risen Christ.

We also light candles from it at baptisms as new Christians go out into the world, bearing Christ.

Your love is a sign of the victory of God's love over the divisions and disputes of humankind. May this candle remind you of this day, and the light of Christ be with you always.

17 PRAYERS

Some or all of the following petitions may be used or a free prayer offered).

Each petition or a grouping of petitions may conclude with:

that they may faithfully live together
to the end of their lives.

May they be patient and gentle,
ready to trust each other,
and to face together the challenge of the future.

Be with them in all their happiness;
And strengthen them in every time of trouble.
Give N and N grace, when they hurt each other,
to acknowledge their fault,
to ask each other's forgiveness,
and to know your mercy and love.

May your peace dwell in their home,
and be a sign of hope for peace in the world.

Let their home be a place of peace and love,
Warm and welcoming to others.

Through loving one another in Christ,
may they be strengthened to love Christ in their neighbour.
